Pursuant to the reponse filed 4/7/08, several claims have been amended. Claims 1-14 and 17-22 remain pending.

Applicants arguments filed 4/7/08 have been considered and found persuasive in part. The §112, first paragraph rejection of claims 17-18 is withdrawn.

Claims 1-5, 7-14 and 18-22 are characterized as allowable at the present time.

Applicants are advised that there is an error in the claim listing. Claim 6 is characterized as “amended”, but no amendment is indicated.

▲

Claim 17 is objected to on grammatical grounds. This claim recites the following:

A method of inhibiting growth of gram-positive bacteria administering to in need thereof a compound as claimed in claim 1.

There are two omissions here. By way of example, the missing text (in boldface) could be supplied as follows:

A method of inhibiting growth of gram-positive bacteria comprising administering to a mammalian subject in need thereof a compound according to claim 1.

▲

Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. §112 second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

As indicated previously, claim 6 recites the following (lines 23-24):

Art Unit: 1654

“...R<sub>a</sub> and R<sub>b</sub> are ... heteroaryl such as pyridyl...”

However, recitation of “such as” in this way fails to set the metes and bounds. It is suggested that reference to “pyridyl” be deleted from claim 6; a new claim could be added which recites pyridyl.
